

As we pray this month for all married couples, take some time to think of those just married, those who have been together for a time, all of them making their way, as best they can through the seasons of their marriages, the joys, celebrations, sorrows, disappointments and the many challenges that come their way.

As part of their commitment to one another, we as a community have committed ourselves to them to recognise their special grace for the Church and the world.

May they understand, the significance of their willingness and cooperation with the grace of their sacrament.

In the Parish, this year may all couples who are planning and preparing to confer their Sacrament of Matrimony to each other,
May God be with them as they start their lives together.

Congratulations too, to all those couples who have perhaps reached a significant wedding anniversary in the coming year.

Welcome to all the newcomers who have promised to pray at their hour during prayer day. Anyone wishing to sign up to an hour can still do so, just ask, Phyllis, Eithne, Ronald, Arthur, and they will help you.
